

Behavioral Instructors Needed in Southern Nevada for Children with Autism

Saturday, June 27th

On-Going Training is Provided

The Lovaas Center (TLC) is sponsoring a free, one-day training seminar on the most effective and commonly used techniques to teach children with autism for those interested in becoming a behavioral instructor. Ongoing training is provided once an instructor is placed with a family.

The Lovaas Center

Feat of Southern Nevada

Saturday, June 27th, from 11:00 to 4:00

Community Recreational Center, 250 North Eastern Ave, Las Vegas, 89101

Lecture and Hands-On Training Provided

Position Requirements

- Must be energetic, open minded, honest, responsible and committed.
- Must have reliable transportation.
- No formal training required, on-going training will be provided.

Salary/Schedule

- Flexible scheduling from 6 to 30 hours per week.
- Excellent pay from $9.00 to $15.00 an hour depending on experience.

To register for the seminar, please send an email to intakes@thelovaascenter.org or call 877-2520. Registration is mandatory. R.S.V.P. no later than June 25, 2015

